In the threshold of these remarks, I give it as my belief that the fair-play spirit and unbigoted provisions of our constitution cannot he assailed, with success, by the dagger-power of secret and irresponsible associations.

To illustrate what I shall say hereafter, I will quote from memory a sentence of Washington Irving: "Our ancestors not only proclaimed but pracijsed a hardy morality that feared no contact. They rusted to the courage and power of truth in their anti-proscriptive constitutions and opinions They were willing to trust their destinies on the arena of a fair and open trial. They thought they could trust the cause of religion, so far as there should be a political jurisdiction over it, to the following clause of our federal constitution : "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof ; or of the people peaceably to assemble and petition the governnent for a redress of grievances.'

And by the same constitution, Congress was intrusted with the power of establishing a uniform rule of paturalization. Now, as I understand it, the to exclude a foreign immigration, but, under the asand American devotion; and, if they should succeed

REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET. FOR THE WEEK ENDING AUGUST 23RD, 1855.

REMARKS.—Business is generally dull, except in the Naval tore line. There has been considerable animation in Spir its Turpentine, Rosin, and Turpentine, and prices may be said to have maintained much firmness in the first and second named articles, and a slight advance in the last .-We are now, however, in the dull season, when the farmers are generally engaged about their crops, and but little produce, with the exception of naval stores, can be expected to I to settle my yearly accounts with the State Treasurer, be brought in. We have endeavored to give below as correct a review of the week's transactions as we have been enabled to obtain, accompanied with such remarks as we believe be paid, and if not settled before September Court, property | to be justified in making, to which we would respectfully re-

JAMES GORDON BENNETT MEMOIRS OF JAMES GORDON BENNET'T AND HIS TIMES-by a Journalist-in one volume, 488 pp., with a fine steel Medallion Portrait. I'rice $1 25. This impartial Biography is the result of many years of preparation by the author, who is acknowledged to be the only gentleman who is calculated, by education, temper, refinement, industry, patience and habitual candor, to do justice to so difficult a subject.

It is a spontaneous act of Literary Justice to the leading Journalist of the United States, and the best abused man in the country. For the opinions of the Press, read the newspapers day afer day, and week after week, and learn the truth concerning the man entitled by some, "The Napoleon of the Press!" and by others called the editor of the "Satanic Press!" from the night soil collected from the sinks and privies of New York City, by the Lodi Manufacturing Co., and manufactured without any adulteration whatever, into an inodorous and powerful manure, something like Guano, but less caustic, and less exhausting to the soil. It is called "Tafeu," from the Chinese word signifying prepared night soil, and is the only article of the kind ever manufactured in this country. It is warranted to be 95 per cent. pure right soil; and from its ease of transportation and application, and the small quantity required to produce hat the unfavorable news from Europe will cause a decline | the same esult as heavier manures, it is the cheapest maon present quotations in Naval Stores, more particularly in nurs ever offered for sale.
